

Please choose a label that best describes your agency and sit at a corresponding table:

1. Small Agency (Less than 1,500 WIA, Title II Learners)
2. Medium Agency (1,500-5,000 WIA, Title II Learners)
3. Large Agency (Over 5,000 WIA, Title II Learners)
4. Parolee/Jail Program
5. CDCR

2013 California Consortium

2013

Promising Practices Awards

Corona-Norco Adult School

Unlocking the Potential to Positive Student Engagement

- ❖ Goals to improve persistence rates, increase attendance rates, and increase student outcomes
- ❖ Created level specific pacing guide, observation checklist, and student feedback forms
- ❖ Persistence has increased over the past 2 years

ESL Teacher Academy

- ❖ Community of Practice for ESL teachers
- ❖ 3 face-to-face training sessions
- ❖ Teach and model good ESL andragogy using CASAS data
- ❖ 30 out of 35 instructors have increased percentage of paired scores and students earning payment points

ESL Student Profile Data

- ❖ Created an online data system to provide up-to-date student information
- ❖ Students can track progress, revisit goals, and modify plans
- ❖ Instructors can target instruction based on class profiles
- ❖ ESL Performance has increased

Discovering Santa Ana College

- ❖ Collaboration between credit and noncredit ESL instructors
- ❖ Students given resources to prepare for transition to credit courses
- ❖ Students have one-on-one orientation and assistance
- ❖ 75% of students transitioned to higher-level classes

2013

EL Civics Making a Difference in the Community Awards

- ❖ Students annually present culture, food, art, and traditional costumes of native countries
- ❖ Past Exhibits include Korean drum performance, Thai fruit and vegetable carving, and a Mariachi Band
- ❖ Creates cultural awareness in the community

Oceanside Adult School: Dress a Girl Around the World (2012)

- Event has expanded from one class to the entire school district
- Connections with local high schools and expansion of volunteers

Fremont Adult School: Vocational ESL (VESL) Lab (2012)

- Now offering additional lab in the evening
- Use of new types of technology
- Additional student presentations

Write down ideas as you listen to:

- Kathleen Porter, Executive Director, Career, Technical and Adult Education, Poway USD
 - ESL to ASE Transition Program

- Liza Becker, Director, ESL, Mt. San Antonio College
 - Non-credit to Credit Transition Program

Transition Discussion Groups

1. Small Agency (Less than 1,500 WIA, Title II Learners)
2. Medium Agency (1,500 - 5,000 WIA, Title II Learners)
3. Large Agency (over 5, 000 WIA, Title II Learners)
4. Parolee /Jail Program
5. CDCR

☐ Utilize the ideas gleaned from the “Ignite” presentations and your colleagues’ experience to discuss:

☐ How might your agency implement Transitions in the future?

1. Facilitator helps participants:

- a. Brainstorm, share and discuss Transition ideas/plans
- b. Pair up to discuss/select a few ideas/plans that may work at your agency and write an action plan.
- c. Share the information from your action plan at your table.

- How might your agency implement Transitions in the future?

To Access Documents, Resources and Discussion Group Plans and Ideas from the California Consortium, please visit www.casas.org/si and click on “Presentations”

Thank You for Attending!

- Attend the Poster Session
 - Golden Ballroom
 - Thursday, 8:00 - 9:15 am

ESL to ASE Transitions

Poway Adult School
San Diego County

POWAY
ADULT
SCHOOL

Live. And learn.

What?

What?

- * Post-secondary transitions plan adopted in 2011.
- * Plan included ESL to ASE and ASE to post-secondary.
- * ESL Teachers have begun to create Performance Benchmarks for each ESL Level.
- * Opened a Transitions Lab that Doubles as
 - * an ESL Language Lab and
 - * a College and Career Center.
- * Created an ESL Transitions Class.

Language Lab and College and Career Center

Key Components – Overall ESL Program

- * ESL Teachers collaborate with ASE Teachers
- * Transition-level students volunteer at ESL Orientations
- * Use of a language lab at every ESL level

All ESL Levels
Use Language Lab to Practice Listening, Speaking,
Reading and Writing

Key Components – ESL Transitions Class

- * Skills to help students move from a teacher-led classroom environment to a more independent learning format
- * College-Readiness Skills
 - * Problem solving and critical thinking
 - * Evidence-based writing
 - * Research
 - * Presentation Skills
 - * Test-taking strategies
 - * Academic Content Knowledge (especially math)

Key Components – ESL Transitions Class

“Typical” Day

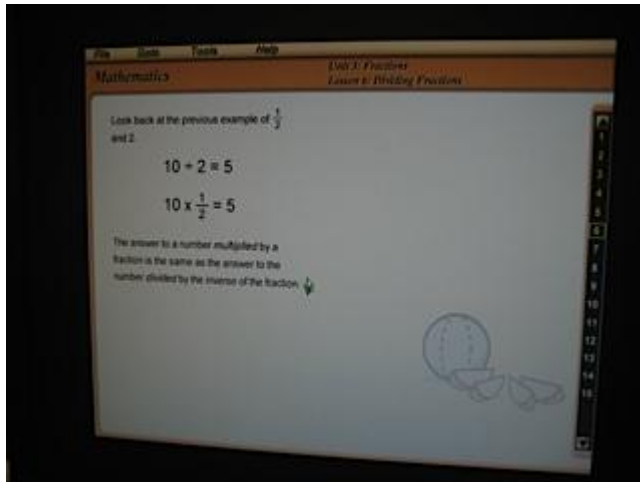

- * Vocabulary
 - * From research and readings
 - * Academic vocabulary
- * Text Reading
 - * All non-fiction
 - * Topics selected by class
- * Evidence-based writing
- * Test-taking strategies

Key Components – ESL Transitions Class

- * Thursdays are lab days for Transition Students
 - * Writing or Researching Topics on Computer
 - * Math (using Contemporaries GED Prep Software)
 - * Team-taught with ASE Math Teacher
 - * Language Lab (using Rosetta Stone)

Transition Students Making Presentation

Transition Math Lesson

Transition Students Researching and Writing

So what?

- * Exemplary learning gains in transition class
- * Significant increase in promotion between levels in ESL program overall
- * Increased collaboration among ESL and ASE teachers
- * Two transition students (so far) went on to pass the CAHSEE and GED tests (with flying colors!)

Transition Students with Mary Zambruski

Now What?

- * Create more concrete benchmarks for each ESL level
 - * Multiple measures each language acquisition element
 - * Measurable with rubrics
- * Expanding and Enriching the Transitions Class by:
 - * Adding PLATO math courses
 - * Expanding to an Evening Environment

Contact Information

Poway Adult School

13626 Twin Peaks Road

Poway, CA 92064

(858)668-4024

Kathleen Porter, Executive Director

kporter@powayusd.com

Dave Boulware, Assistant Principal

dboulware@powayusd.com

Mary Zambruski, ESL Transitions Teacher

mzambruski@powayusd.com

Mt. San Antonio College

VESL Career Paths

A Noncredit-to-Credit Transitioning Program

Liza Becker, Director (ESL)
2013 CASAS Summer Institute, CA Consortium

VESL Career Paths

- Key Elements of the Program
 - ★ Advanced Levels Only
 - ★ Credit & Noncredit Faculty
 - ★ Classes a “Package Deal”
 - ★ A Learning Community
 - ★ Bridge to Academic and Career Advancement

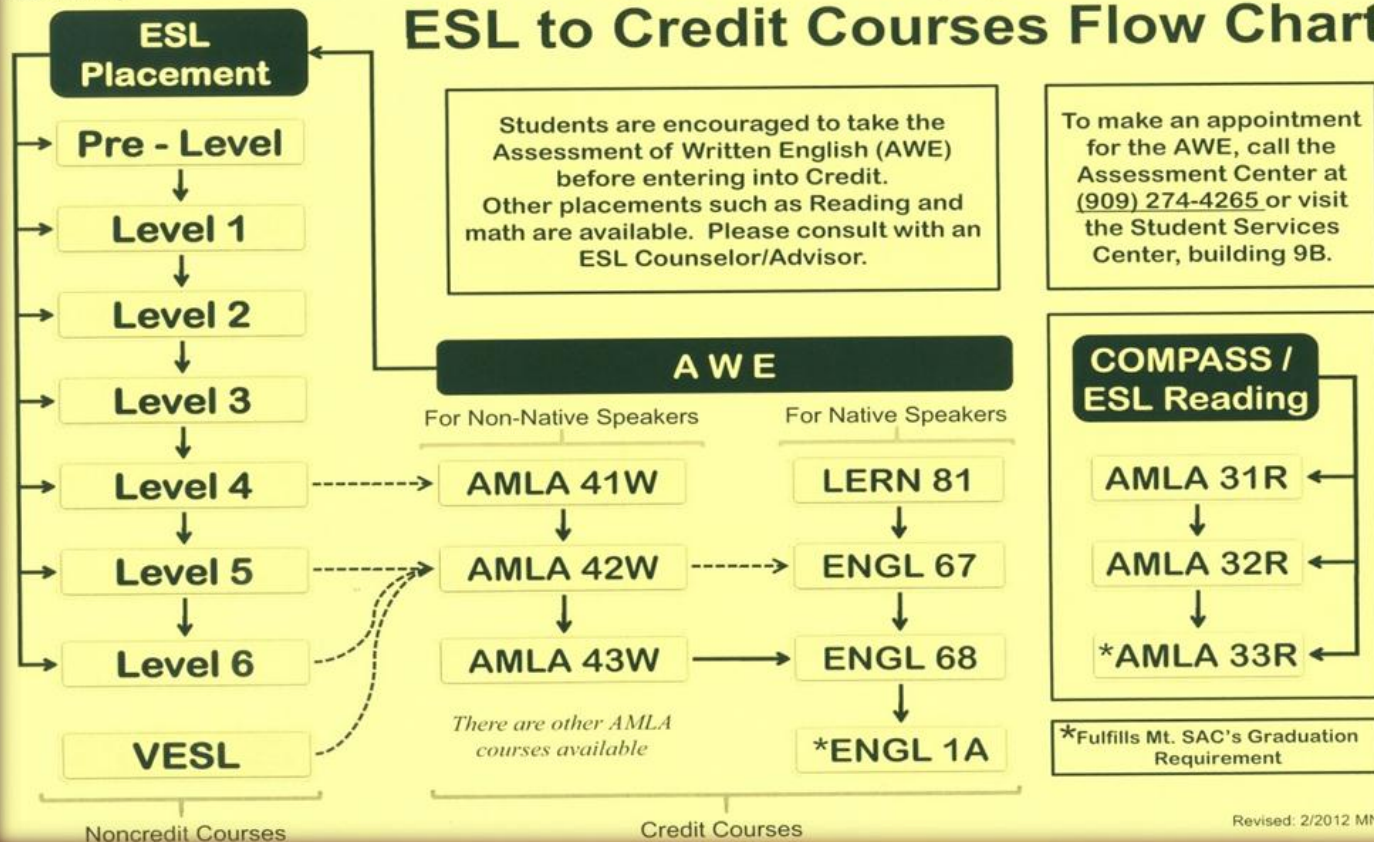

Articulation Agreement with Credit ESL

English as a Second Language Department

ESL to Credit Courses Flow Chart

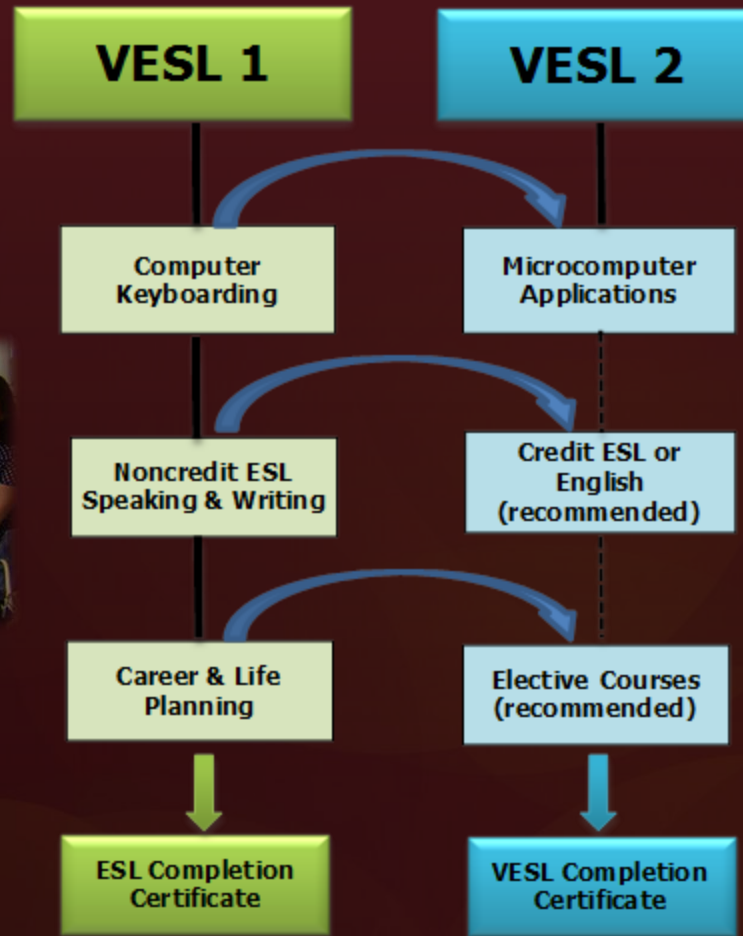

Four Types of Students Enroll:

- Wants a college degree—needs improved English and study skills
- Has a college degree and experience—needs improved English to earn a vocational certificate or pass a board exam
- Has a job—needs improved language and computer skills
- Wants to be active in their family's life and community—needs more English and computer skills

Career Paths Course of Study

Modeling Credit

- Computer Courses
 - Mirrored Curriculum
 - Identical Textbooks & Exams
 - Optional Credit by Exam (CBE)
- Communication Courses
 - Lecture note taking
 - Formal class presentations
 - Paragraph writing to essay writing
- College & Career Courses:
 - Orientation to College = Credit Orientation
 - Education Plans
 - Mt. SAC Application

Multiple Measures for Success

Portfolio-based Assessment

VESL 1 Student Portfolio Checklist (Spring 2013)

Student Name: _____ ID#: _____

Course Title	Items to Be Included	Date	Grade	Instructor Feedback
Speaking C (ESL SPKC)	U.S. Company Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PowerPoint (posted on VESL website) • Rubric
	Product Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PowerPoint (posted on VESL website) • Rubric
Writing C (ESL WRTC)	U.S. Company Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Composition • Rubric
	Product Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Composition • Rubric
Career & Life Planning (BS CNSL5)	Career Presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PowerPoint (posted on VESL website) • Presentation Handout
	Cover Letter
	Resume
Computer Keyboarding (VOCCS11)	Production Work
	Timed Writings

Types of Support

- Counseling Support:
 - Counselors as instructors
 - Academic and career guidance
 - Resume preparation and mock interviews
- Instructional Support:
 - Optional VESL tutoring outside of class time
 - Help with assignments & projects other than computer classes
- Opportunity for Independent Study:
 - Practice computer skills during open lab
 - Help with Keyboarding & Microcomputer Applications assignments

Annual Retreats

- Community of Participants:
 - All VESL Faculty and Staff
 - Credit ESL Liaison
 - Current Students and Alumni
- Topics Discussed:
 - Policies and Regulations Updates
 - Streamlining Transition Process into Credit
 - Students' Feedback Regarding VESL and Beyond
 - Program and Curriculum Improvements

Credit-by-Exam Outcomes

Fall 2012

Credit by Exam

Passing Rates

Computer
Keyboarding

80%

Microcomputer
Applications

70%

Transitioning to Credit Outcomes Rates & Success

Portfolio Cover Design Spring 2013

VESL CAREER PATHS

A Bridge to Academic & Career Success

Yun Shan, VESL 2

Brenda Serrano, VESL 2

