Use Choice Questions:

Elementary School Level

- BH: Do you want to read or finish your homework?
- IL: After the test, do you want to read or start working on homework?
- IH-Adv: When you're done taking the test, would you like silent reading time or time to begin completing today's homework assignment?

Middle School Level

- BH: Do you want me to check your answers now or do you need more time?
- IL: Do you want me to check your answers or do you prefer to check your answers with a partner?
- IH-Adv: After answering the questions, would you like my feedback or would you rather discuss your answers with a classmate?

High School Level

- BH: Do you want to write about technology or mental health?
- IL: Please choose a topic to write about. What do you prefer, mental health or technology?
- IH-Adv: You will pick a topic to write about by the end of the day. Would you rather write about technology or mental health?

Elementary School Level

- BH: It's okay. Sit down and breathe for a minute.
- IL: It's okay to feel like this. Sit and breathe with me for a couple of minutes.
- IH-Adv: I am sorry this is happening. It's okay to feel frustrated. Let's take a short walk around the playground and let me know when you are feeling better.

Middle School Level

- BH: You can focus better if you sit over here.
- IL: It looks like you are not able to focus on your work. Please come sit at the front of the classroom.
- IH-Adv: I notice you are having a hard time focusing. Would you like to sit at a different table that is closer to the front of the classroom?

High School Level

- BH: Please put that away. Do you need help?
- IL: That is not what the teacher asked you to do. Do you need help finding today's assignment?
- IH-Adv: That's not today's assignment, please put it away. The teacher is expecting you to work on something different. How can I help you get back on track?
