

STAFF TRAINING WEBINARS
PRESENTED BY LARRY ROBBIN

“CASAS occupies a distinct intersection between adult education and workforce development. This overlap across systems is reflected by the variety of attendees at our annual conference, the CASAS National Summer Institute. Larry has presented many times at Summer Institute to standing-room-only crowds. He has the ability to ensure his presentations always encompass, affect, and inspire all groups represented in his audiences. He presents practical solutions on a broad variety of topics — all supported by sound theories and substantiated by his vast personal experiences. Attendees know they will acquire original ideas from Larry’s unique point of view about how to serve learners more effectively regardless of their circumstances — whether incarcerated, in training, in class, or seeking employment. His expertise and compassion continually serve his audiences well.”

Jane Egüez CASAS Vice President and Director of Program Development
