Item Writer, Consultant

CASAS is a national, non-profit research and educational testing organization with a focus on adult education that connects with career pathways and transitions to post-secondary education, training and the workforce. CASAS is seeking a consultant with item writing and editing experience to support our test development initiatives. Experience in developing assessments for both adult English language learners as well as adult native speakers of English is desired. Test levels range from beginning literacy levels through transition into post-secondary education, training and the workforce. Test content is aligned with the College and Career Readiness Standards for Adult Education and also is focused on adult relevant context.

Consultant would be responsible for:

- Researching and writing passages for use on a variety of assessments
- Constructing multiple-choice items aligned to basic skills content standards
- Editing and revising items based on feedback from CASAS staff
- Participating in item writing workshops with the CASAS Item and Test Development team

Qualifications:

- Bachelor’s Degree in Education, Assessment, English, ESOL, or a related field. Advanced degree preferred.
- One or more years of experience in item writing for educational assessments
- Experience teaching adult basic education and/or English as a Second Language is preferred
- Ability to accept and respond to feedback and constructive criticism
- Proficient with Microsoft Word

How to Apply:

If you would like more information or want to apply, please submit your resume with details of relevant experience to desko@casas.org.