TOPSpro Enterprise Basic & Enhanced Features Comparison

TE Features	TE Basic (WTU) Access	TE Enhanced (TEU) Access
Web and Network Advantages
Deployment as web-based	✓	✓
Enterprise database for agency-wide implementation	✓	✓
Engaging user interface	✓	✓
Web-based reporting, e.g., online student portfolio		✓
Data recorded and accessible in real-time	✓	✓
Data hosted on a secure server	✓	✓
Administrative Advantages – Local, Regional, and State
Standard data exchange* functions: demographics, attendance, class, E/U records		✓
Varied modes of data entry: shared database for assessment and DBM
• Online Assessment	✓	✓
• Scanning TOPSpro Enterprise Answer Sheets		✓
• Data import or manual entry (students, tests)	✓	✓
• Data import or manual entry (classes)		✓
Collects and aggregates student-level data	✓	✓
Rolls up data to local, regional, and state level		✓
Generates all NRS tables (CASAS, BESTplus, TABE test scores)		✓
Tracks learners in multiple programs	✓	✓
Tracks registered students	✓	✓
Wide variety of customized reports available in color, charts, and graphs		✓
Ad hoc reporting tool with custom filtering		✓
Comprehensive filtering in data grids		✓
Agency-managed access rights (list, view, create, update, delete)		✓
Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) compliance	✓	✓
Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act (HIPPA) compliance	✓	✓

TE Features	TE Basic (WTU) Access	TE Enhanced (TEU) Access
Classroom Advantages – Tests and Reports
Scores CASAS assessments (choose NRS tests)	✓	✓
Provides student-level reports	✓	✓
Provides classroom, site, program, agency, state, and federal reports		✓
Provides flexible access rights according to agency-defined groups		✓
Records instructional hours (optional)		✓

*Contact CASAS to discuss custom data exchange requirements and costs.